Did you Know?

E. B. White liked animals. Not long after he married his wife Katherine in 1929, they moved to an old farmhouse in Maine. He once said, "I like animals, and my barn is a very pleasant place to be, at all hours." It is not surprising that some of the barn creatures made their way into his children's books. One day he spotted a spider spinning an egg sac, and this became an inspiration for Charlotte's Web.

Don't forget to create your own Spider Art and submit it by the 16th. There are only a few submitted so far. We already have some fabulous posters up on the bulletin board upstairs. Get yours finished so we can see it! How is your Rat Trap coming? It is going to be SO much fun to see if they work or not!! And don't forget the videos!! Lots to do in only a little time!

*Don't forget to dress like your favorite character on Friday March 9th!

UNEXPECTED FRIENDSHIPS ARE THE BEST ONES

...is our theme for this year. Each day our teachers recognize certain students for displaying this trait. At the beginning of the day, Mr. Prezioso randomly draws one name. This student gets to choose a prize from our "treasure box". Our students drawn were:

Haidyn Bunker - great helper & team member

Laura Pallatella - did the right thing

Erich Peischl - included classmate

Megan Thoman - helped someone
